CAROLINE STREET APARTMENTS

The Residence

Caroline Street Apartments, located in New Bedford's West End Community, is a 64 unit elderly housing community comprised of 62 one-bedroom and 2 two-bedroom apartments; including 4 units that are fully accessible and 6 market rate set-aside units for the elderly and near elderly.

The development is owned and managed by the New Bedford Housing Authority (NBHA), and is subsidized by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). Residency is subject to meeting the eligibility and qualification criteria of the NBHA.

Caroline Street Apartments, one of the five national demonstration models funded by a HUD HOPE VI grant, combines affordable elderly housing with supportive services to promote healthy, safe and active lifestyles.
